Dear Dr. Guillory:

The members of the Rocky Mountain Society of Gastroenterology Nurses and Associates wish to thank you for the excellent presentation, "Ten Steps to Better Health," that you made at our Oct. 18 meeting in Denver. The response was so enthusiastic that we would like to ask you to return to speak at our fall 2009 conference.

We ask our members to rate speakers who appear at our biannual conferences, and your scores were among the highest possible. Here are some of the written comments made by nurses who attended the event, for which they received Continuing Medical Education credit: "Excellent"; "Awesome"; "Just wonderful, full of great info"; "Great sense of humor"; "Super talk, very helpful"; and "Excellent, have him back." Many nurses said they found the segment regarding probiotics particularly helpful.

We look forward to seeing you in 2009. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Nancy DeNiro, RN, CGRN
